

Going Black in Time

Join us on a Bus Day Trip to the Past
Black Heritage Tour of Los Angeles

Friday, February 27, 2015 • 8 am - 4 pm

Discover the 1781 African connection to the founding of Los Angeles; travel to the Bridget "Biddy" Mason Memorial and learn the history about the first African-American—a former slave—to purchase land in Los Angeles; learn about the history of the Watts Tower; view the Mother of Humanity sculpture and tour the Civil Rights Museum; learn about the black entertainers like actress Louise Beavers, Pearl Bailey, Hattie McDaniels (first African American to win an Oscar), Earl Grant (jazz organist), and Ray Charles, of "Sugar Hill" in the 1940s; visit the historic mural in the oldest black church in Los Angeles, First AME; and more!

Leading us on this journey is Tour Director, Dr. Toni-Mokjaetji Humber, professor of ethnic and women's studies at Cal Poly Pomona and member of Our Authors Study Club, Inc., the Los Angeles chapter of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History, Inc., established in 1915 by Carter G. Woodson, founder of Black History Month.
